INTERNATIONAL MODE

Letter from the Chair, Konstantinos Lazarakis MW

“Establishing Greece among the highly desirable destinations for world-renowned wine studies had been a dream”

The 2023 WSET Diploma class will definitely be a special one for our school as it follows a year of a record number of new holders of this flagship qualification.

Establishing Greece among the highly desirable destinations for world-renowned wine studies had been a dream since the very first day of our operation back in 2004. We keep our hands-on approach; we make sure our planning combines high quality studies with great experiences and fellowship.

In that regard, the opportunity to opt for the programme that best suits our Students is at the top of our agenda.

Our unique International “SANTORINI & ATHENS WSET DIPLOMA” –including a trip to the renowned volcanic island and the chance to meet iconic local winemakers - will take place for the 5th time.

ON OUR SIDE, rest assured that we will stop at nothing in order to provide the highest educational standards. Earning and maintaining the ranking of one of the top 12 WSET providers worldwide is a feat achieved not by chance nor coincidence. Respect towards your investment and the provision of an educational experience of the utmost quality is what makes the WSPC world go round.

Looking forward to welcoming you in Greece.

Sincerely,

ABOUT INTERNATIONAL “SANTORINI & ATHENS WSET DIPLOMA”

SANTORINI, the highly-regarded volcanic island nestled in the Aegean Sea, is the hestia of some of the most iconic Greek winemakers and wines that are in the spotlight of professionals and connoisseurs around the globe. This fascinating battering ram of the Greek wine is in the core of our unique International Programme that was launched in Spring 2017.

MORE SPECIFICALLY, one of the 4 Blocks of this special programme will take place in Santorini, enhancing the study course with an experiential discovery of the renowned region with roots going back to antiquity: meeting the winemakers, visiting the volcanic phylloxera-immune vineyard and tasting wines of sheer character.

THE REST OF THE BLOCKS will be held in Athens, at the brand new and highly impressive and spacious premises of WSPC at Paleo Faliro, an area less than 5km outside the city center. Athens is among the top European city-break destinations offering to the visitor an outstanding mosaic of archaeological sites and museums, as well as a contemporary urban hub of culture, gastronomy and entertainment.

BOTH DESTINATIONS of the “SANTORINI & ATHENS WSET DIPLOMA” have international airports and provide direct flights to and from Greece and all major cities around the world. At the same time, a broad selection of accommodation is available. It must also be highlighted that the Santorini Block will take place during off-season, in order to avoid the tumult of tourists.
